PREFACE

I have been interested in family history since childhood and began taking notes while my grandparents were still living. While living at Fort Wayne, Indiana in the late 1920's, I began collecting Wright data. In the early 1930's I contacted three distant cousins, Mrs. Mary D. Stoops and Mrs. Zella W. Atkinson of Chicago, and the late Dorothy Terhune of Kansas City, Missouri who were also looking for the "right" Wrights, that is the descendants of Richard Wright, Sr. who died in Rowan Co., North Carolina in 1785. We have been interested in Richard Wright's ancestry also, and have examined many lines, some of which looked promising, but still have no definite proof of his parentage. I trust more research in North Carolina, and possibly in Virginia and Maryland, may bring this to light. Or, if he was the first of our line in America, that ship records may be found to prove same.

As far as I know, I was the first to use Benjamin Wright, Sr.'s line for D.A.R. I had compiled many of his descendants but could find nothing of his son James Wright, until about 1938 when I contacted Mrs. Lillie E. (Wright) Lane White of Bloomington, Indiana. She had collected James Wright's descendants and I gave her the necessary data for D.A.R. bars thru Benjamin Wright, Sr., and his father, Richard Wright, Sr. At one time she intended to publish a complete book and include mine and other relatives' material on Richard Wright, Sr.'s descendants. She found the cost so prohibitive in wartime (1943), that she cut her book down to her own line of James Wright's descendants in detail, with just an outline she had had copied from our data. She was ill at the time and this copied material was not proof read, altho the section on James Wright seems quite accurate. I am not repeating his line in this manuscript; but will refer to "GENEALOGY OF RICHARD WRIGHT AND DESCENDANTS" by Mrs. White for additional data on James.

To get a picture of the many descendants of Richard Wright, Sr. see the typed manuscript called "William and Amos Wright" by Mary D. Stoops in Newberry Library (Chicago, Illinois) or in the Indiana State Library, together with this manuscript; and I expect to type Richard Wright, Jr.'s descendants as Vol. II, and Philburt and Evans Wright's descendants as Vol. III, in the near future. We have never been able to contact descendants of John and Peter Wright, altho Dorothy Terhune thought at one time she had trace of John's family in Missouri. We also believe that Richard Wright, Sr. had four daughters but have found nothing definite as to their descendants.

I will appreciate correspondence concerning this Richard Wright and descendants.

I. Richard Wright, Sr.,
whose will was probated Feb. 8, 1785, Rowan Co.,N.C.

We have been unable to find Richard Wright Sr.'s ancestry but give the following comments and"lines" to show some things we have investigated without success.

1. Grant Wright's manuscript says: "Tradition has it that Richard Wright, Sr. was born in England, emigrated to Wales, came back into England, and he, with four brothers, immigrated to America probably sometime about 1746. They came to the Eastern coast of Maryland. Here they separated. Two went into New England, one went into New York, and Richard with one brother came into Virginia, then to Randolph Co., North Carolina. Later Richard moved to Rowan Co., N.C., where he spent the remainder of his life."

We do not know where Grant Wright heard this tradition, but remaining near Salem, Indiana as he did, he had a chance to talk with the older Wrights and those who might return for a visit. We feel that the Philburd Wright who married Elizabeth Reagan (see under William Wright, the daughter Sarah who married Levi Wright- in Mary D. Stoops manuscript) must have been related to our Richard, Sr. and since that Philburd was born in Maryland in 1750, we feel it is a strong point in favor of Richard's having lived in Maryland too.

THE WRIGHTS OF MARYLAND by CAPT. CHAS. W. WRIGHT says that their tradition is that five Wright brothers came to the Eastern Shore of Maryland from England. (Could Grant Wright's "tradition" come from this scource?) Capt. Wright gives records showing John Wright, Samuel Wright, William and his brother James Wright, and Edward Wright lived in eastern Maryland between 1680 and 1704, but cannot prove that they were brothers. This book does give many Celia Wrights in the feminine lines, as does our Richard's, but it does not give all descendants and no Richard that we could claim.

PIONEER PREACHERS OF INDIANA by EVANS, published in 1862 says on page 29, speaking of John Wright (son of Amos. Sr.) that "his father's ancestors came from England and settled on the East coast of Maryland. Some went to the Carolinas."

Early histories of Wayne and Marion County, Iowa, give Richard Wright, Sr. (in write-ups of his grandsons) as coming to America in early colonial days.

COLONIAL FAMILIES OF SOUTHERN STATES by Stella Pickett Hardy, page 535, says:"Wrights of Maryland are descended from Nathaniel and Solomon Wright, two brothers who came to the Province in 1675."

ABSTRACTS OF AUGUSTA COUNTY VIRGINIA, VOL. III, page 146, gives will of William Wright, aged about 68, dated 7,June 1775, naming sons: Samuel, John, William, James, Alexander and four daughters. His descendants in Ohio say he, and probably his father and a large family, came from Ireland to Virginia between 1740-1745. Their tradition says seven single sisters came with William did. This date of age and arrival in America corresponds somewhat to those of our Richard but we can find no proof that they were brothers.

Since we have been unable to find ship records giving date of Richard Wright and brothers entrance to America, we have examined many other theories, several of which follow.

2. Several people have tried to tie us onto the Kelvedon Wright line, as we wish were possible. This family has been prominent in England for many centuries. Sir John Wright of Kelvedon Manor, Essex, England, was granted the title and Coat of Arms on June 20, 1509. Kelvedon Hall was erected between 1544- 1568 and was still in possession of Sir John's descendants in 1915, when Curtis Wright's book, THE WRIGHT FAMILY IN ENGLAND AND AMERICA, was published. Other books giving this line are: HISTORY OF THE WRIGHT FAMILY WHO ARE DESCENDANTS OF SAMUEL WRIGHT (1722-1789) OF LENOX, MASS. published 1913, edited by William Henry Wright and Gertrude Wright Ketcham; and THE WRIGHT FAMILY 1066-1929, by George William Wright.

Curtis Wright's book gives the following: (numbers refer to generations.)

(1) Sir Henry Wright and Anna
(2) Rev. Sir John Wright died May 9, 1509, wife Agnes.
(3) John Wright of Kelvedon (1498-1551), wife Lady Olive.
(4) Robert Wright (1516-1587), wife Mary Greene.
(5) Thomas Wright married Roberdye Pake.
(6) John Wright married Grace Clascock.
(7) Thomas Wright (1616-1670), to Boston then to Wethersfield, married Elizabeth Chittenden; 2nd, Mrs. Margaret Elson.
(8) James Wright (1652-1705) of Middletown, Conn., married Mary----; Dorcas Wood; and Mary---------.
(9) Daniel Wright born 1674 died June 8, 1764, of Glastonbury, Conn., married Eleanor Benton.

This is where the records differ. Curtis Wright gives the only child of Daniel and Eleanor Wright as Ruth Wright, born June 5, 1711, married Elizur Talcott, Dec. 31, 1730.

George William Wright, who got much of his North Carolina material from Judge R. Lee Wright, gives the children of Daniel and Eleanor Wright as: Gideon, Richard, John, Benjamin, William, Samuel, Daniel, James and Isaac. This book says that soon after his marriage, ca 1695-96, Daniel and his wife moved to the colony of Virginia and then to North Carolina between 1700-1708. Then the will of our Richard Wright Sr. is applied to the Richard above, son of Daniel and Eleanor Wright.

We are fearful that the two Richards are not the same, and very doubtful that Daniel and Eleanor Wright had more than one child, a daughter. We can find no mention of this Daniel Wright going to North Carolina and believe he died in Connecticut because GLASTONBURY INSCRIPTIONS, part of a book called WETHERSFIELD INSCRIPTIONS by Tillotson, published 1899, gives on page 319, "Here lies interr'd/ the Body of Mr / Daniel Wright/ who died June / the 8th 1764/ aged 90 Years." These seem to be the same dates given for the Daniel said to have gone to North Carolina. Did he go south then return to New England when old?

No wills have been found in North Carolina for any Daniel Wrights of this period. However Judge R. Lee Wright's manuscript quotes Stile's Ancient Wethersfield Connecticut Records as showing that James Wright married Mary Rose and had: James, Daniel, Jacob, Jeremiah and Hezekiah Wright. He also states that Jeremiah Wright is mentioned in the Moravian Records of the Moravian Mission at Salem, N.C.and that Daniel Wright is also recorded as being in North Carolina about 1700. I would welcome more research on this line.

3. The Washington- Wright line is most interesting and we would be happy to establish relationship with them. Charles Arthur Hoppin has written a great deal about these Wrights in Vol. IV, No. 3 of Jan. 1923 Tyler's QUARTERLY HISTORICAL AND GENEALOGICAL MAGAZINE. Briefly, they are:

(1) Capt. Richard Wright 1635-1663 from England to Virginia, perhaps first to Mass. then to Va., married Anne Mottram.

Children:

(2)-1 Mottram Wright married Ruth Griggs,later annulled.
(2)-2 Anne Wright married
(2)-3 Frances Wright born ca 1650, died 1715 married Anne Washington, who died before 1699. He married 2nd, Martha Cox.

Children by Anne:

(3)-1 John Wright, Gentleman 1685-85, died 1759, married Dorothy Awbrey.
(3)-2 Anne Wright married Gerrard Davis.

Child by Martha Cox:

(3)-3 Richard Wright, died 1740, had a Son Francis, who was then a minor.

(3)-1 John Wright married Dorothy Awbrey ca 1705-1708.

Children:

(4)-1 Francis Wright, died young. Had three daughters. Died 1742, in 33 rd year.
(4)-2 John Wright, Jr. born ca 1709-10, died in Fauquier Co.,Va. in 1792. He married Elizabeth Darnall.

Children:

(5)-1 William Wright married
(5)-2 James Wright married, had daughter Bostoy
(5)-3 John Wright,III, 1728-1789 married Anne Williams.
(5)-4 Rosemond Wright not married
(5)-5 Richard Wright married
(5)-6 Mary Wright not married
(5)-7 Elizabeth Wright married a Parlow.

This Richard Wright is the one Prof. W. Wayne Smith of Moscow, Idaho, thinks might be our RICHARD and gives this in Mrs. White's book page126. So far we can find no definite proof that this John Wright had a son Richard. Richard is not named in his father's will, dated June 1, 1785. However our Richard died in January 1785. I don't know where Judge Lee Wright and Prof. Smith got this Richard but believe it was from some earlier articles on the Wright-Washington line. He is not listed in the Tyler's Magazine quoted above for the most of this line, and the Author, Charles Arthur Hoppin says he tried to distinguish very carefully because some early genealogists had taken it for granted that all the Virginia Wrights in that locality were related, when they were not. The Richard who died in 1740, had sometimes been confused for ours.

(5) 3 John Wright,III, 1728-1789, who married Anne Williams, had 18 children, one named Richard.but he would have been too young for our Richard.

4. The late Dorothy Terhune Bertner of Rodkey, Indiana, was trying to trace our ancestry thru Richard Wright born Chester Co., Pa,, 1729-30, son of Jacob, who was a son of Peter and Alice Wright of New England. However records indicate this Richard married Abigail Wigerly on June 6, 1757 and according to our list, our Richard had children born in 1752,1754 and 1757.

5. THE METHODIST DISCIPLINE, edited in 1904 by Bishop Andrews, gives a Richard Wright, sent over by John Wesley with Francis Asbury in 1771. Other church history gives this Richard in the Carolinas. Addie Wright Hepler of near Lexington, N.C., who is a great granddaughter of Richard Jr.'s, thought this was our Richard but could offer no proof other than that there was an early Wright preacher in the family. She said, "When I was a child the old logs of the church where Richard Wright preached were still to be seen, and was called RING HILL, because the Indians had a ring they danced around when they had a white person." Since Richard Wright Jr. was an early Baptist preacher, it could be that he preached at RING HILL.

There is a deed record to Richard Wright in Rowan Co.,N.C. dated 1762 which would indicate our Richard was there before the Methodist Richard.

NOTES
(For future findings on Richard Wright,Sr.'s ancestry.)

I. Richard Wright, Sr.

According to D.A.R. records, Richard Wright Sr. was born in 1730 and died in 1785. We know his will was probated Feb. 8, 1785. So far as we know, the date of his birth has never been definitely established. We think the genealogist who helped the first members join the D.A.R. thru Richard Sr., must have estimated the date of birth. Mr. Grant Wright's manuscript says, "He is supposed to have been buried in a cemetery on the waters of the Uharie in Davidson county, North Carolina near the Randolph county line. There has not been a burial in that cemetery for more than 100 years. The graves are marked with crude stones bearing no inscriptions." (Addie Wright Hepler, a descendant living near there, says this cemetery is about two miles from Silver Valley Cross Roads, which is on U.S. Highway No. 64, about ten miles east of Lexington, North Carolina.) The above manuscript states, "According to tradition, Richard Wright was of Scotch and Irish descent." The history mentioned below says he was English, and PIONEER PREACHERS OF INDIANA by MADISON EVANS, published by J. Challen & Sons of Philadelphia in 1862, says the Wrights came from England. HISTORY OF GREENE COUNTY IOWA, published in 1887, says Richard Wright Sr.'s grandson was of Scotch- Irish descent.

D.A.R. records say Richard Wright, Sr. married in Rowan county, North Carolina in 1748. They give no authority for that date. (Judge R. Lee Wright of Salisbury, North Carolina, says in his manuscript, "The first deed found so far in Rowan Co., North Carolina to Richard Wright, was dated 1762, in Book 5, page 366.") D.A.R. records also say the wife was Jane. As far as we can learn, this name was taken by an early genealogist from the 1790 census of North Carolina where a Jane Wright, widow, was listed. Grant Wright's early manuscript called her Elizabeth Jane, for the same reason, finding Elizabeth Wright, widow, with a grown son, listed in the census of 1790, and knowing that the D.A.R. records said Jane. The HISTORY OF BARTHOLOMEW AND JACKSON COUNTIES, INDIANA, published in 1904 by B.F. Bowen, on page 745, calls her NANCY. In 1939 Mrs. Kyle Wright Hill of Glenwood, Iowa, a descendant of Richard Wright Jr.'s, learned thru a genealogist (either Mrs. Welborn of High Point, N.C. or a Mrs. McCubbin of Salisbury, N.C.) that when Richard's will was probated, his widow was named as ANN. Perhaps the real name was Nancy, but since Ann is the only name for Richard's wife found so far on an official document, we shall use that name in this manuscript. The history mentioned above, (Jackson Co., Indiana) says she was Scotch.

Ann Wright's date of death is given as 1795 by D.A.R. record. We do not know how this date was obtained. It could have been the date Widow Jane Wright died instead of Ann, wife of our Richard. We do not know Ann's maiden name. U.S. Wright thought the Morgan who witnessed Richard Sr.'s will, must be related to the family and told Grant Wright he believed Ann was a Morgan. Prof. W. Wayne Smith called her Ann Morgan in Mrs. White's book on Richard Wright descendants, page 126, but this was only based on the above supposition. Since finding that three of Richard Sr.'s sons married Morgan girls, we believe that was the connection with the Morgan family and feel that it is unlikely that she (Ann) was a Morgan.

Kyle Wright Hill says a record of Richard Wright and wife Ann, selling a farm on Haw River in Orange Co., North Carolina to Harmon Husband, was sent to her but it gave no date. I believe the correct name was Herman Husbands, a well known leader of the Regulators in Orange Co., North Carolina, who had to leave that state after the Battle of 1771. Guilford Co. North Carolina has record of Herman Husbands selling land there in 1766. At that time Guilford was part of Orange County. WHEELER'S HISTORICAL SKETCHES OF NORTH CAROLINA, Vol. II, says, "Herman Husbands' two sons settled on a large tract of land on Deep River, near Buffalo Ford. His daughter married a Wright." (page 349). LIFE OF HERMAN HUSBANDS by Mary Elinor Lazenby, says he married Mary Pugh as his second wife in 1762 and probably had from her, William and maybe a daughter who married a Wright on Deep River.

It is possible that this Husband girl married a son of our Richard Sr. since the wives of Peter, John and Evans are unknown to us, but more likely that she married a son of John Wright III, born in Virginia 1728 and died in Surry Co., North Carolina, 1789. See page 6. Judge Lee Wright's manuscript says of this John Wright, "He had the discretion to settle near good neighbors, the Elsberry's and Husbands, who had previously entered the district."

Grant Wright's manuscript says, "It seems that Richard Wright, Sr. was a large land owner and accumulated well for one in his day.-----He was a Revolutionary soldier, a private in the North Carolina militia from Rowan county. It is said that his five oldest sons also fought in the Revolution."

We know that Richard Wright, Sr., and his sons, Benjamin, Richard, Jr. and William have been used many times for D.A.R. membership. We have no data on John and very little about Peter.

(The Clerk who sent Will says the "Waters of Mary" could be "Uary", and if so, it probably meant the River Uharie.)

Richard Wright
James Morgan Junr.

This will was probated Feb. 8, 1785 by Evins Wright and James Morgan Junr. His widow Ann, and William Wright qualified giving bond of 200 pounds with James Morgan as security.

Children of Richard Wright, Sr. and wife, Ann.

Grant Wright says he had the names and dates of birth of Richard Wright, Sr.'s children, from Elder Ezekiel Wright of Putnam Co., Indiana, who sent them to his father many years ago. Miss Mary Lee Woodrum of Putnam Co., Indiana, says her father also had the same names and dates. They are as follows:

2-1 Benjamin Wright, born 1752. Married 1st, Barbara Morgan; 2nd, Patsey--------. (Wives' names from U.S. Wright.)
2-2 Peter Wright, born 1754. According to Wes Lee Wright's Bible, Peter Wright died Oct. 1821.
2-3 Richard Wright, Jr. born 1757. Married 1st, Nancy Morgan (some records say Mary Morgan); 2nd, Cary (or Cara or Caroline) Kittrell.
2-4 John Wright, born 1759. Revolutionary Soldier. No definite information about him or family.
2-5 William Wright, born 1761, on March 25th. Married Martha (called Patsey) Morgan.
2-6 Evans Wright, born 1762. Married Rebecca ----------.

2-7 Amos Wright, born 1764. Married 1st, Elizabeth Low; 2nd, Margaret Davis.

2-8 Philburt Wright, born March 29, 1768. Married 1st, Mary (Molly) Sears; 2nd Elizabeth Devin Beck.

2-9 to 12 Daughters.

Jackson Co. Indiana history says of the above William Wright, that he was one of twelve sons. We believe it should have said twelve children instead of twelve sons. Grant Wright remembers that Josiah Johnson said that old Richard Wright, Sr. had a family of eight sons and four daughters.

We do not have names of any daughters but North Carolina descendants of his say that McCager (Micajah) Wright had an Aunt Betsy Pearce of Randolph Co., North Carolina, and another Aunt who married Allen Rodgers and had a great granddaughter, Genie Rodgers, still living at High Rock, N.C. in 1948. Allen Rodgers lived near Yadkin River where High Rock dam is now. These women must have been daughters of Richard Wright, Sr. We have been unable to contact their descendants or verify elsewhere.

Marcus Wright, who lives on a part of the old Wright plantation 10 miles east of Lexington, North Carolina (on or near U.S. Highway 64), says the above men had several sisters. He remembers that a Wright girl married a Snider, but is not sure whether she was Richard Sr.'s or Richard Jr.'s daughter. However his sister, Addie Wright Hepler, says it was Richard Wright's Jr.'s daughter, Cely Wright, who married a Snider.

BENJAMIN WRIGHT, Sr.

2-1 BENJAMIN WRIGHT, Sr., son of Richard Wright, Sr. and wife, Ann, was born 1752, died at his son Adam's near Indianapolis, Indiana, about 1842, according to Grant Wright's records. He does not remember who sent this data. I have felt they were approximate dates, but he does not think so. We do not know where Benjamin was born. The first deed to his father, in Rowan Co., North Carolina was dated 1762, Book 5, p. 366.

Benjamin is named first in his father's will, Dated Sept. 3, 1784, and given 200 acres of land on the waters of Deep River, in Randolph Co.,N.C., including the plantation whereon he used to live. Ben lived in this section of N.C. many years and relatives,there, say Ben Wright Mountain in Randolph Co., was named for him. He moved to Indiana in the 1820's, with his second wife and their children. Many of his first children had already settled in Indiana. We find him listed in the Indiana census of 1830, in Wayne Twp., Marion Co., next to his youngest daughter, Celia Wright and husband, Nathaniel Bell. He was then between 80-90, and wife between 60-70. Nearby were his sons, Jordan and Judge Adam Wright. The 1840 census of Marion Co., Ind. gives all these children, but no Benjamin Wright. With Jordan's family, however, is listed a female between 70-80. I believe this was probably Jordan's mother.

Deed records show that Adam Wright's farm was just south of Trader's Point, Marion Co., Ind. on the Lafayette Road, now called the Bush farm. I could find no cemetery on this farm. Recently I found that Adam and wife were buried in Old Union Cemetery, southwest of their farm, now between the Speedway and Clermont, Ind. Adam died not long after his father and I believe they were buried in the same place. There is an old slab next to Adam's grave, so worn that a tracing shows only, A.B.Wright----- died------1837. The Indiana State Library has records of this cemetery which were copied a few years ago and they say: A.B.Wright, died Oct.4, 1857, son of _____ and B. Wright. One party thinks the age was 56 or 86. If 86, could have been Benjamin, Sr. but know of no way to prove this unless Church records of Old Union still exist.

I have found nothing to show that Old Benjamin lived in Putnam Co., Ind. with his older children, and no stone for him in Ben,Jr.'s home cemetery.

U.S.Wright of Maryville, Mo., grandson of Ben Jr., collected much data on Benjamin, Sr., from his elderly aunts, daughters of Ben, Jr. They said Benjamin Sr.'s first wife was Barbara, and his second wife was Patsey. They remembered their Aunts, Sarah Hill, Martha Moss and Elizabeth Copple lived near enough to often walk over to visit, in Putnam Co., Ind. They gave the list of Benjamin Wright,Sr.'s children, which follows.

No marriage records for Benjamin Wright, Sr. have been found. We think he first married between 1770-1775, and that his first wife died at the birth of Benjamin,Jr. in April, 1794, or soon after. He married again about 1795.

Levi Woodrum said, years ago, that Richard Wright, Sr. had three sons who married Morgan girls. We knew Richard Jr. and William did but did not know that Benjamin was the third until recently. Mrs. Lillie E. (Wright) White of Bloomington, Indiana, a descendant of Benjamin Wright, Sr. thru his son James, has proof that James' mother was a Morgan. Barbara (Morgan) Wright had a younger brother, Elijah Morgan who settled near his nephew, James Wright, in Monroe County, Indiana in 1817. Mrs. White's first husband was a descendant of this Elijah Morgan. Barbara and Elijah Morgan's parents were James and Mary Morgan, according to one Indiana history.

While we feel quite sure that Benjamin Wright, Sr.'s first wife was a Morgan, I have had some doubts about the Barbara since finding that Jordan Wright's wife was Barbara Fox. Could the old aunts have confused the two? We have found only one Barbara in the known granddaughters of Benjamin Sr. but many first girls in the family were named Elizabeth.

"Patsey" is the only name known for Benjamin Wright, Sr.'s second wife. His great granddaughter, Cordie Rector of Ottumwa, Iowa, says he grew so old he forgot that he had ever been married before and used to say, "I never had any wife but Patsey." It should be noted here that a descendant of his son James, wrote that he had always heard Benjamin Wright, Sr. married two Morgan girls, (sisters) the last when very old, and mentions a "Gen. Morgan" as their father. This, we cannot verify.

Benjamin Wright, Sr. is said to have fought in the Battle of Guilford County Court House in the Revolutionary War. He was paid for services, according to North Carolina Rev. Army Accounts, Vol. XI, p.73, folio 1; and Vol. XII, p.21, folio 2. One dated Aug. 1783, other not dated. Copies of these records are filed at Memorial Continental Hall in Washington, D.C. under Nat'l. D.A.R. No. 291647.

CHILDREN OF BENJAMIN AND BARBARA (MORGAN) WRIGHT:
3-1 Elizabeth Wright, was living in 1830.
3-2 Nancy Wright, born May 4, 1779, died April 10, 1860.
3-3 Martha Wright, born May 1780, died after 1872.
3-4 James Wright, born Dec. 16, 1781, died May 11, 1873.
3-5 Richard Wright, born June 15, 1783, died Nov. 1843.
3-6 Jesse Wright, born between 1780-1790, died after 1851.
3-7 Sarah Wright, born 1792, died 1846.
3-8 Benjamin Wright, Jr., born April 18, 1794, died 1866.
(According to census of Randolph Co., N.C. for 1790, Benjamin Wright, Sr. may have had other girls whose names we do not have- if the females listed were daughters.)

CHILDREN OF BENJAMIN AND PATSEY ( ) WRIGHT:
3-9 Jordan Wright, born Jan. 12, 1796, died Apr. 4, 1865.
3-10 Adam Wright, born Jan. 13, 1799, died Oct. 13, 1851.
3-11 John Wright, died young.
3-12 Thomas Wright, burned to death as a child.
3-13 Celia Wright, born June 17, 1805, died Jan. 10, 1876.
3-14 Jeremiah

3-1 Elizabeth Wright, thought to be have been a daughter of Benjamin and Barbara Wright, married Peter Copple.

The only reference I had to this daughter was from U.S. Wright who said she lived near his old Aunts in Putnam Co., Indiana and they used to visit when his grandfather Benjamin Wright, Jr. lived there. The 1790 census record for old Benjamin Wright Sr., would indicate that there were more girls in the family than our records show.

However a niece of Benjamin Wright's, was Elizabeth Hill who later married Lewis Copple and lived near the Ben Wright Jr.'s in Putnam Co., Indiana, and they may have been confused as to the relationship.

I did find in the deed records of Putnam Co. Indiana, where Elizabeth and Peter Copple gave land to their son, Lewis, in 1830.

The census record of Indiana for 1830 does not give Peter and Elizabeth Copple. It does give Lewis Copple, as between 20 and 30 years, and an Amos Copple, between 20 and 30 with a wife between 20 and 30, and a son and daughter under 5 years. They were both listed in Putnam Co., Indiana.

Child:
4-1 Lewis Copple (also called Cobble) was born about 1804 and died after 1870 near Nuna, Iowa. He married Elizabeth Hill Wells (who was likely his cousin) in 1828 at Greencastle, Indiana.

For descendants, see under Elizabeth Hill's line, daughter of Sarah Wright Hill.

It is possible that the above Amos Copple was a brother of Lewis' but we have no proof.)

Gilstrap- Wright history compiled by

Zella Wiseman Atkinson (Mrs. Dayton C.) 1950.

For years we knew that Benjamin Wright Sr. probably had daughters whose names we did not have, since the census of 1790 gave 6 females. In 1950 the obituary of Nancy (Wright) Gilstrap was found giving Benjamin as her father.

3-2 Nancy Wright, born in Rowan Co., N.C. 5-4-1779, died in Washington Co., Ind. 4-10-1860.
The Christian Record- Elijah Goodwin, Editor & Publisher; Indianapolis, Ind.-Vol. IV, No.7, July 1860-Pages 223-224, gives the following:
"Brother Goodwin:

It becomes my painful lot to record the death of one of our most ancient sisters, Sister Nancy, widow of Richard Gilstrap. She was the daughter of Benjamin Wright, born in Old Rowan Co., N.C. 5-4-1779; married in the same county, 5-24-1797; was immersed by Elder Wm. Summers in Wayne Co., Ky. in 1806, becoming a member of the Separate, or Free Will Baptist (This church never had any Confession of Faith or Discipline, beside the Bible!)

"She was one of the first to embrace the Reformation, and continued a faithful member of the Church of Christ at Mill Creek, Washington Co., Ind. until the day of her death. She died 4-10-1860, being 80 yrs. 11 mths. and 6 days old. She always attended the Lord's house whenever opportunity permitted. She was very devotional and zealous in religion; but she is no more. "Blessed are the dead that die in the Lord from henceforth; yea sayeth the spirit, that they may rest from their labor, and their works do follow them."

"She is gone to the grave, but it were wrong to deplore her,
He bought her; He took her and soon will restore her;
Where death has no power, since the Saviour has died!"

Salem Indiana ----- by Rev. Jacob Wright."

The 1790 census of Craven Co., N.C. page 152 gives:
Peter Gilstrap, 2-1-6. (wife Mary)
Richard Gilstrap, 1-1-1. (wife, Mary Pruitt).
It was there that Richard Gilstrap first married, 2-6-1788, to Mary Pruitt, who died after the birth of two sons, David and Peter Gilstrap. David Gilstrap and wife, Hannah, presented church letter to Mill Creek, Wash. Co., Ind. Oct. 1824. Peter Gilstrap married Elizabeth Gross, Clark Co., Ind. and they had six sons and six daughters, namely, Richard, Jacob, Levi, Wm., Andrew J."Jack", Violet "Polly", Nancy, Mary Elizabeth, Sarah "Sally", Jane and Rebecca. Peter and wife died in Newton Co., Mo. but lived for a time in Wash. Co. and Putnam Co., Indiana before going to Missouri.

Richard Gilstrap went to Rowan Co., N.C. after his father's death and his first wife's death, and there married 5-24-1797, Nancy Wright, daughter of Benjamin and Barbara (Morgan) Wright.

Richard Gilstrap was son of Peter and Mary Gilstrap of N.C., born 5-6-1769; died 12-8-1856 on his government entered acreage in Howard Twp., Wash. Co., Ind. and buried thereon, a private "God's acre." Richard Gilstrap's first deed from U.S.A. was 1808, signed by Pres. James Madison.

Richard and Nancy (Wright) Gilstrap lived in N.C. for a few years, descendants say they were in Lincoln Co. N.C. in 1805, hence to Wayne Co., Ky. by 1806, then to Howard Twp., Washington Co.,Indiana about 1808.

We never heard of many of the people mentioned in the estate settlement but will place them under Richard Gilstrap's descendants to the best of our ability.

It should be noted that descendants say Nancy (Wright) Gilstrap lived in Wayne Co., Kentucky in early 1800's when Amos Wright Sr. and Evan Wright lived there, and helped care for Amos' motherless children. They later visited when both lived in Washington Co., Indiana and she called him Uncle Amos, but we were never sure of her father's name until the obituary was found in1950.

4-1 William Gilstrap, son of Richard and Nancy (Wright) Gilstrap was deceased when Nancy's estate was settled in 1860-61. From court records it would appear that he had:

Martha Wright Moss Family.

3-3 Martha Wright, daughter of Benjamin Wright, Sr. and his first wife, Barbara, was born in May 1780, according to a letter in my possession. It was from her son and wife, Pleasant and Thena Moss to William and Celia Fox, in Numa, Iowa, dated Oct. 31, 1872 at Reelsville, Indiana, and says in part: " Your Grandma is well and hearty and can start off and walk to any of the neighbors houses the same as she always did. Her mind is not quite as good as it was when you were here but good for her age. She says she will be 93 in May."

Martha Wright married William Moss. We have found no marriage bond record but they were probably married in North Carolina about 1800. His stone in the Boone Cemetery just west of Reelsville, Indiana, says: Willian Moss died Oct. 3, 1863, aged 82 years, 8 mo. 3 da. He was apparently born Jan. 30 (or 31st), 1781. Martha is likely buried beside William but if so, has no stone. However she may have died while visiting other children. Another letter about 1870, mentions Grandma spending some time with her daughter, Nancy Cunningham.

In a History of Jasper County, Missouri, by Joel T. Livingston, published by The Lewis Pub. Co., Chicago, N.Y. & San Francisco, 1912, Vol. II, page 927, there is a sketch of Samuel T. Moss which says: "His grandparents, William and Martha (Wright) Moss, natives of North Carolina, migrated to Indiana in the early part of the nineteenth century, locating in Washington Co. In the fall of 1853, they visited Missouri, from here going to Kansas where they spent some time before returning to their home in Indiana. They were the parents of ten children, four sons and six daughters."

William and Martha (Wright) Moss were living in Washington Co., Ind. in 1820, and according to the census record, had one son and three daughters between 10 and 16, and one son and two daughters under 10. Also at that time, there was a female with them over 45 years. We wonder if this was the mother or a sister of William Moss, since Martha's mother had been dead many years.

From Putnam Co., Ind. records, William and Martha Moss must have settled in that county about 1825 or 26. Deed records show much land owned by William Moss between 1826 and 1863. Relatives say the old homestead was about six miles northwest of Greencastle.

Copy of a letter in my possession. Osee J. Knouf.

August the 25th, 1865,
Greencastle, Indiana.

Dear Son and daughter,

It is with great pleasure that I take my pen in hand to write a few lines to you in order to let you know that we are all well except Pleasant and myself. I am never well but keep on foot. Pleasant has the chills but we hope that when this comes to hand it may find you all well and so doing. We received your letter and were glad to hear from you and that you was coming out if we was living. We thank our kind Savior that we are still on the stage of action and wouldbe so glad to see you that I can't tell you now how I could hold ourselfs. It seams that the Lord has spaired our lives through all our troubles and trails in this world of sin and sorrow for some cause or other and I do hope that it is a good one for we have seen trouble anough to kill us since we saw you last but we thank God that we have out rid the storm so far and I still hope that we may be inabled to out ride them all and at last get home to heaven where we will have no more sorroing but sing the songs of praised eternity around the dazling throne of God where parting will be no more for ever.

We have nothing more to rite that is worth your attention only that we still remain your affectionate father and mother untill death to Elias and Elizabeth Fox.

(On the back of the same double sheet, it says:)

A few lines from doctor and Malinda Fox. I don't know that I have mutch to rite as Mother and father has here told you that we are all well and that we received your letter and was glad to here you was coming out to see us We have wanted to see you but we can't come there as well as you can here so we shall look for you the hardest kind untill we see you if life is spared you to full fill your promise which I hope it will.

We have had a very dry summer here. Corn crops will be short. Wheat is very good. Fruit is plenty, both peaches and apples. I think that we could get along very well if this awful rebellion between the people could come to a close but I am afraid it is only begun. We can here of awful distruction very near every day on both sides it is thought that it will be bad through here if it is not stopped and I think that it is a bad prospect at this time of it coming to a close.

Now Elias we don't want you to forget to come and rite when you will be here.

The connection all sends their best regards to you all.
Direct your letters to Reelsville, Indiana, Putnam Co.

(Note: Elias and Elizabeth (Moss) Fox were living in Iowa at this time. The letter from William and Martha is in very good handwriting. They were then 82 and 85 years old and William died about six weeks after the letter was written.)

From the Clerk of Court, Putnam Co., Indiana, I obtained a transcript of the final settlement of the estate of William Moss, with Pleasant Moss, Admr., dated Nov. 14, 1872, and it lists the following heirs:

1. Elizabeth Fox, deceased daughter, her heirs: William Fox, Thomas Fox, John Fox, Adam Fox, Elias Fox, Tilman Fox, Elizabeth Rogers, Martha Long, Celia Russell, and Columbus and Mary Harper, heirs of Nancy Harper.
2. Henry Moss, deceased son. All of his interest bought by his son, John R. Moss.
3. Nancy Cunningham.
4. Heirs of Ransom Moss, deceased son: David Moss, Malinda Engle, Martha Alexander, Elizabeth Russell, and William Moss.
5. Heirs of Polly Love (Mary Moss), a deceased daughter: Abby Love, only name given.

6. David F. Moss
7. Heirs of Malinda Moss, a deceased daughter: James H. Fox, Washington Fox, Harvey Fox, Celia Davenport, Dena Fox, Jemina Fox, Pleasant Fox, John Fox, Susan Fox and Joel Fox.

8. Heirs of Delila Scott, deceased daughter: John, Martha and Malinda Scott.

9. Pleasant Moss, son, Admr.

Martha Moss, widow of William was given one third of the estate. Part of this estate was in Jasper Co., Mo. The above indicates that only three of William's ten children were living at the time of his death.

John Fox, mentioned above as heir of Malinda Moss Fox, was still living in 1940, and gave me the names of many Uncles and Aunts. The only one he remembered who was not named in the transcript, was Catherine (or Katherine) Moss. John said she never married. She must have died before her father and leaving no heirs, was not named.

Children of William and Martha (Wright) Moss: (Order not known.)

4-1 Elizabeth Moss born 1805, died 1868.

4-2 Henry Moss

4-3 Nancy Moss

4-4 Catherine Moss (or Katherine)

4-5 Ransom Moss

4-6 Mary (Polly) Moss

4-7 Dr. David F. Moss, 1815-1909.

4-8 Malinda Moss born 1818, died 1866.

4-9 Delila Moss

4-10 Pleasant Moss.

4-1 Elizabeth Moss, daughter of William and Martha (Wright) Moss, was born in North Carolina on Nov. 25, 1805, and died Oct.6, 1868 near Eddyville, Iowa, but was later moved by her son William Fox, to his lot in the Motto Cemetery, about two and one half miles south east of Numa, Iowa. Her stone says: Died Oct. 6, 1868, aged 62 yrs. 10 mo. 11 da.

Elizabeth Moss married Elias Fox, probably about 1822 in southern Indiana.

Elias Fox was born in North Carolina in 1802 and died on June 28, 1885 near Milton, Sumner Co., Kansas. He was buried in Eden Cemetery, two miles northeast of Milton. He married Rebecca Bromfield after Elizabeth's death and they moved from Iowa to Kansas a few years before his death.

We believe Elias' parents were Frank Fox of North Carolina and Martha Cunningham, a native of South Carolina. We know that Dr. Franklin Fox who married Elizabeth's sister Malinda, had theaabove parents, and old letters would indicate that Elias and Franklin were brothers.

Elizabeth and Elias Fox lived in Putnam Co., Indiana for many years and probably in Montgomery Co. Elizabeth had lived in Washington Co., Indiana after coming from North Carolina with her parents.

Deed records show that Elias owned much land in Indiana,and also in Iowa where,they moved about 1852. Some land grants signed by President Andrew Jackson and President Martin Van Buren, are still in the family.

Some descendamts thought that Elizabeth Moss married a man named Cobble (or Cauble or Copple) first but I cannot find any confirmation of that. Others say she had a sweetheart named Cobble at one time while Elias was away at War but married Elias when he returned.

Elias Fox left a will naming his eleven children, dated in 1868 after Elizabeth's death, but it was never probated. He apparently divided his property before his second marriage, and his daughter by second marriage, says he left very little for Rebecca and family.

Children of Elias and Elizabeth (Moss) Fox:

5-1 William Fox, born Oct.26,1823, died Jan. 31, 1902.
5-2 Thomas Fox
5-3 Nancy Fox, born Oct.14, 1827, died Dec. 30, 1854.

5-11 Tillman A. Fox,born about 1844.
5-12 Celia Fox, born about 1848.

5-1 William Fox, son of Elias and Elizabeth (Moss) Fox, was born Oct. 26, 1823 in Indiana, and married Celia Hill at Greencastle, Indiana, on Nov. 7, 1843, the family Bible record says. (Putnam Co., Indiana record says Nov. 5, 1843, by Isaiah Wright, J.P. This was probably when the license was issued.) They lived in Putnam Co.,Ind. until 1852 when they moved to Appanoose Co., Iowa, and a short time later bought the homestead just east of Bellair, now called Numa, Iowa. The early history of that county says they helped found the first Methodist Church at Bellair in 1857. Celia's brother, Rev. Jesse Hill, is given as one of the early ministers. His preaching here was probably done on visits to the Fox family as most of his ministry was in Indiana.

Celia died April 18, 1880 and was buried in Motto Cemetery south east of Numa, Iowa, where William was also buried when he passed away on Jan. 31, 1902.

Children of William and Celia (Hill) Fox, were: Hirum, Elias, Martha Sarena, Nancy Elizabeth, Alvarine Marshall, Jesse Albert, and William Tecumseh Sherman. Since William and Celia were second cousins, these children and their descendants will be found in detail under Sarah (Wright) Hill.

William Fox was again married in the fall of 1881 to Mary Elmeda Litsey, at Centerville, Iowa. She was a distant cousin of William's,(See under Rebecca (Hill) Wells line.) She was born March 22, 1859, and died Feb.18, 1941, buried at Numa, Iowa. She had saved old deeds, letters etc. from the Fox and Moss family which helped fill in many details in this history.

Children of William and Elmeda (Litsey) Fox:

6-1 Henry Wesley Fox 6-2 Anna Fox.

6-1 Henry Wesley Fox was born August 11, 1882, on the old Fox homestead near Numa, Iowa where he still resides. He was married July 11, 1901 at Sublette, Missouri, to Nora Bell Toney, daughter of Clinton and Laura Toney. Nora was born April 18, 1884 and died May 10, 1939. She was buried at Numa, Iowa.

Henry W. Fox has carried the rural mail from Numa, Iowa for many years but spends much time in electrical and mechanical work and experiments. He is an amateur radio operator with call W9QQC. 6-2 Anna Fox, daughter of William and Elmeda (Litsey) Fox married ..... Krewson, lives at Hammond, Indiana.

5-2 Thomas Fox, son of Elias and Elizabeth (Moss) Fox was probably born about 1825. Putnam County Indiana records say he was married at Greencastle on July 7, 1847 by the Rev. Jesse Hill to Julia Mariahann Whitaker.

Descendants of this family are unknown. Thomas lived in Missouri at one time and from a letter written in 1883 by John Fox, Thomas' brother, he must have lived in or near St. Joseph at that time.

5-3 Nancy Fox, daughter of Elias and Elizabeth (Moss) Fox, was born Oct. 14, 1827, died near Numa, Iowa, Dec. 30,1854. Buried in Motto Cemetery. She married E. S. Harper in Indiana. He was born Oct.11, 1822 and died March 9, 1910. Children:

They lived in Atlantic, Iowa for three years then to Audubon, where he was engaged in photography for many years. He was a mechanical genius, artist and musician. He was an invalid as a child yet lived to be 80 years old. Mrs. Harper died in 1910, then "Lum" went to live with his sister Mary, until 1917. C.C. Harper married for the second time to Miss Elta Fullhart of Osceola, Missouri, who survived him.

Children of C. Columbus Harper and Hildred (Johnson) Harper:

7-1 Ellis Harper, born 1876, studied for the ministry, but died in 1898.
7-2 Ruby Harper, also studied for the ministry, died in 1899.
7-3 Beola Harper, died in infancy or quite young.

6-3 Mary Elizabeth Harper was born at Greencastle, Indiana on Dec. 31, 1850, her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Wilfred Wilson says. She married John Hess Wilson on May 7, 1873. John was born in 1848 and died in 1938. The family used to travel as a musical unit, and relatives at Numa, Iowa say they always considered it a rare treat to have the Wilsons visit them. She married ----------Slavens.

6-3 Olive Slavens, married Austin Snead. They live at Neosho,Mo.

Anna Moss Gates, niece of Dr. David F. Moss, wrote me when she was 77, that her Uncle Dr. David Moss XXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXX adopted Sam and Hester. I believe she may have been confused since Hester was a niece of Sam's, and Dr. Moss did raise Margaret's children, Hester, Frank and Olive Slavens, after his daughter Margaret's death. However they were not adopted.

4-8 Malinda Moss was born in Washington Co. Indiana, Feb. 9,1818, and died May 15, 1856, near Reelsville, Putnam Co., Indiana. She was buried in Boone Cemetery, just west of Reelsville. (Stone.) She married Dr. Franklin Fox, who was born in 1813 or 1815, and died at Palestine, Illinois in the fall of 1878, aged 63 or 65. His parents were Frank Fox of North Carolina and Martha Cunningham of South Carolina, according to their daughter, Christena, called Tena. We also believe Dr. Franklin Fox was a brother of Elias Fox who married Malinda Moss' older sister, Elizabeth Moss.

Dr. Fox and Malinda lived near Reelsville, Indiana until her death, then Dr. Fox moved to Greencastle for a few years. About 1870, he and several children moved to Illinois, locating at or near Marshall. Sometime after 1872, he moved to Palestine, Ill., where he died in 1878.

She believes all the children were born near Reelsville, Indiana on what was then called Fox Ridge. She also adds that she was always told that her Fox-Moss ancestors were Scotch Irish.

4-9 Delila Moss, daughter of William and Martha (Wright) Moss, married ------Scott. She must have died before 1872, since the court record of her father's estate, settled then, says: "Heirs of Delila Scott, deceased daughter: John, Martha and Malinda Scott." Nothing else known of this family.

4-10 Pleasant Moss, son of William and Martha (Wright) Moss, married Thena ----------, and lived near Reelsville, Putnam Co., Indiana until after her death. Pleasant was adminstrator of his father's estate in 1872. John Fox, who was born in 1858, remembers his Uncle Pleasant Moss, and says he had three children:
5-1 Mary Moss married Harvey Likens

5-2 Son

5-3 Daughter

Pleasant Moss was married the second time to a Mrs. Furney. They went to Texas to live, and George Fox thinks it was at or near Sulphur Springs, Texas.

Thena Moss wrote frequently to William Fox and wife in Iowa. I have several of these old letters in my possession (Osee J. Knouf). The last one, according to date, is as follows:

Reelsville, Indiana. Oct. 31, 1872.

Dear Nephew and Niece,

After so long a time I now sit down to write you a few lines to let you know how we are all getting along. I have not been able to do a days work for over a year. My health has been going down for over two years and I am now not able to do a thing. I have a very bad cough which is very annoying when I lay down. Some doctors say I have the liver complaint while others say my constitution has all gone down gradually alike.

Your grandmother is well and hearty. She has not had but one little brash of sickness since you was here and that was very light. She can start off and walk to any of the neighbors houses the same as she always did. Her mind is not quite as good as it was when you was here but it is good as could be expected of a person of her age. She says she will be ninety three in May.

Your Uncle Doctor Foxes family is all well as far as I know except Joel. He has the breast complaint. He has hemorage of the lungs. He can't do no hard work nor lifting but what his lungs breaks out bleeding. Teny Fox is married. She lives in the house with her father. They still live in Illinois.

Your Aunt Lily Wells, has had the erysipelous on one of her arms and has lost the use of it. It was her right arm. She is well and hearty out side of that and the rest of the family is well as far as I know.
Cela, I would have wrote sooner, but have been begging hard to get Pleasants picture taken to send you and as he was going to town the other day after so long he had it taken and now I send it to you. We was all glad to get your picture altho it was sometime before I could see the resemblence of you. I see your cheeks is getting drawed down some as well as mine but time will leave its marks. Well I will close for this time as Pleasant has a few words to say.

A few words from Pleasant to William.
I want to send Thomases money to you for you to send to him. I want you to send me your picture now and write to me. You never answered my other letter. Cattle is worth 4c to 4 1/2 c a lb., hogs 4c a lb., wheat $1.25 a bu. Corn 40c a bu., oats 30c a bu., Irish potatoes, 50c a bu., Hay $15.00 a ton. Horses average $75 and sheep $4.00 a 100 lbs. I have no news of importance to write so will bring my letter to a close by saying write soon and come and see us when you can. Harvey Likins family is well. This from your Uncle and Aunt Pleasant and Thena Moss to William Fox and wife.

The above letter was kept by William Fox's second wife and given to me (Osee J. Knouf) in the 1930's.
Two Moss girls married Fox men (Elias and Dr. Franklin Fox) and we have wondered if Pleasant Moss' wife, Thena, was also a Fox. In the above letter it speaks of "Your Aunt Lily Wells". We think she must have been a Fox, too, since all of the Moss girls seem accounted for, also all the Hill girls, sisters of William Fox's wife who was Celia Hill.

James Wright

by Lillie Wright Lane White.

3-4 James Wright was born December 16, 1781 in Randolph County, North Carolina and died May 11, 1873 at his home near Harrodsburg, Monroe County, Indiana. He was the son of Benjamin and Barbara (Morgan) Wright. He was raised on his father's farm and came to Kentucky when a young man. He worked on a farm for Christian Sears of Oldham County, Kentucky. James was united in marriage to Elizabeth Sears, daughter of Christian and Catherine Sears in about the year 1800. They lived a few years in Kentucky with Christian Sears then moved to Utica, Indiana. Their third child, David, was born November 16, 1806 at Utica, Indiana. Later they moved to Pigeon Roost, Indiana. On Sept. 3, 1812, the historical Indian Massacre of Pigeon Roost was made. James and Elizabeth had five children at that time, Frankie Ann, Charity, David, Nancy and Emsley. They lived east of the Indian trail from the settlement and were spared. James was out working the next day when a man came running to tell him the sad news, that Pigeon Roost had been taken the night before by Shawnee Indians. Sixteen children and six women had been slaughtered. James took Nancy, the fourth child, on horseback to his wife's parents, Christian and Catherine Sears, near Louisville, Kentucky. James and negro slaves took wagons back to get the rest of the family and the household goods. After peace had been declared, James moved his family to Washington Co., Indiana, then to Monroe County in 1815.

James Wright entered land in Monroe Co. Indiana on Sept. 24, 1815. Later he entered eight other tracts, making 1165 acres. At one time he was one of the three largest tax payers in Monroe County. His farm was eight miles south of Bloomington, Indiana.

James Wright and family attended a log church on John Kutch's farm near the banks of Clear Creek. It was called Lather Wood Church. Later he helped build South Union Church. Many of his descendants are buried in the cemetery there. He was a faithful member of the church, read his Bible and had family prayers. In 1941, I saw his large Bible and most every page was marked, some written on where he was searching for knowledge of the Bible. He played the violin and sang hymns. He was tall, medium size, blue eyes, and worked hard clearing the timber off the land. He enjoyed life and died as the age of 92 years. He was able to work until coming from the barn after feeding the cattle one cold winter morning he fell and broke his hip. He lived about three months. He was buried on his farm by his first wife, Elizabeth, a short distance from his brick home. The writer of this sketch attended his funeral there on May 11, 1873.

Bloomington, Indiana was laid off April 10, 1818. A log courthouse was built soon after and the first Jurors of Monroe County selected, James Wright and John Kutch being among them. James Wright was Justice of the Peace from 1818 to 1827, inc. Records show he and his brother Jesse Wright bought land together in 1824.

Before I saw James Wright's Bible, I was told that he was born at the beginning of the Revolution and had a stone erected for him with the date of birth as 1775. His Bible gives 1781, which was at the close of the Revolution. James Wright's birth is also given in the Ketchem and Dutch Genealogy as 1775 which is a mistake.

Children of James and Elizabeth (Sears) Wright:
4-1 Frankie Ann Wright, born ca 1802.
4-2 Charity Wright, born Jan. 20, 1804, died Feb. 8, 1876.
4-3 David Wright, born Nov. 16, 1806, died Mar. 2, 1895.
4-4 Nancy Wright, born Feb. 13, 1809, died Nov. 4, 1890.
4-5 Emsley Wright, born 1811, died 1854.

4-7 Sarah Wright, born Sept. 25, 1816.

4-9 Mary Wright, born Mar. 3, 1821. ???
4-10 James B. Wright, born Jan. 11, 1822, died May 4, 1906.

3-4 James Wright was married for the second time in 1835 to Mary M. Myers Miller, born 1802, died 1880.
Children:
4-11 George Johnson Wright, born Sept. 2, 1836, died Sept. 6, 1916.
4-12 Susan E. Wright, born May 10, 1839.
4-13 Elizabeth Wright, born Oct. 1842.
4-14 Lewis Wright, born 1845, died in the Civil War.

(The descendants of the above children have been given in detail in a book published in 1943 at Bloomington, Indiana by Lillie Elizabeth Wright Lane White, called GENEALOGY OF RICHARD WRIGHT AND DESCENDANTS. She has given a copy to DAR library in Washington and perhaps other places. I am giving a copy to Newberry Library in Chicago and can be used with this manuscript. Osee Johnson Knouf.)

3-5 Richard Wright, son of Benjamin Wright, Sr. and Barbara (Morgan) Wright, was born in Randolph Co., North Carolina on June 15, 1783, and died in Greene Co., Indiana, Nov. 1843. He was buried in what is now called the Frey Cemetery just south and a little east of Jasonville, Indiana. His stone says: "Richard Wright, d. Nov. 1843, aged 60 yrs. 5 mo. In my father's house are many mansions." I did not find stone for his wife. From Greene and Sullivan Co., Indiana history, by Goodspeed, published 1884, on pages 311, 313, 315, 328, 332 and 433, we find the following about Richard Wright:

"Rev. Richard Wright was born June 15, 1783 in Randolph Co., N.C. His wife was Elizabeth Hughes who was born there June 5, 1783. They moved to Clarke Co., Indiana in 1807; to Washington Co. for two years, then to Monroe Co., then to Smith Twp., Greene Co. in 1826. Among the first weddings in that township (Smith) was that of their daughter, Celia Wright, to Samuel Wilks.

"Wright township was named for Richard Wright. Petition for Wright township was made in 1838. Other pioneers in Wright township besides Rev. Richard Wright, included Peter Wright, William Wright and Isom Farris.

"The first school in the township was taught about 1823 or 1824 by one of the Wrights or, some think, by a man named Poe.

"Richard Wright was a minister and it mentions both the Christian and Baptist churches in connection with the family.

"Richard Wright enlisted in the War of 1812 and served the entire time. He was slightly wounded while working at Fort Harrison.

"Richard Wright settled on a farm and built a blacksmith shop where the Widow Dean now lives (1884). This was at Lone Tree Prairie in Smith Twp. Wright sold this to Richard Lambert.

"Old Uncle Richard Wright was Justice of the Peace and a good citizen in his neighborhood. He died from a strange accidental gun shot while working in his blacksmith shop. His step-son, Harden Walker, had been hunting and had had some trouble with his gun. While trying to fix it, Richard put his ear to the barrel and it discharged through his head. This was in November 1843."

Mr. Melvin Hornbaker of Bloomington, Indiana, who is a great grandson of the above Rev. Richard Wright, told Mrs. White (who compiled the descendants of Richard's brother James Wright) much to verify the account given in the history. His version of the accident was: Richard had made his son Jerry a gun and it got choked, so he plugged up the gun and thought he would boil it to get the powder wet so he could work with it. He put his ear to the barrel to see if it was boiling, and it went off and killed him.

Mr. Hornbaker also said he had been told by his mother that Rev. Richard Wright often went to preach away from home. Before he left he assigned tasks to each child and if they had not done the work when he returned, they were severely punished by the common method of that time, "whipping".

Mrs. White found that Richard Wright entered land, Sec. 23, W 1/2, S.E.1/4, 80 A., in Indian Creek Township, Monroe Co., Indiana on Nov. 7, 1818. She also found from Monroe Co. records, that he was a Justice of the Peace there and performed many marriage ceremonies, between 1824 and 1827. From the names, many were relatives of Uncle Richard Wright.

Children of Richard and Elizabeth (Hughes) Wright:
4-1 Celia Wright born probably about 1808.
4-2 Jerry Wright born 1810 or 1811, Mr. Hornbaker says.
4-3 Jane Wright
4-4 Elizabeth Wright
4-5 Hiram Wright
4-6 James Wright born May 5, 1825.
I am not sure of the order of birth. Mrs. Alice McKee, granddaughter of Richard Wright, listed Jerry first, and Celia fourth. From the difference in age, it is possible there were other children who died young.

4-1 Celia Wright, Greene County history says, was married in 1826 to Samuel Wilks and that it was one of the first weddings in that (Smith) township. If married at 18, as was common, she was likely born about 1808.

Henry Saucerman wrote that Celia Wilks lived at Ft. Scott, Kansas, and that her daughter Ellen, still lived there the last he knew.
Children of Celia Wright and Samuel Wilks?
5-1 Daniel Wilks
5-2 George Wilks
5-3 Celia Wilks
5-4 Ellen Wilks married ------Sparks, lived at Ft. Scott, Kan.
5-5 Hat Wilks ? I was unable to determine whether Hat was a son of Samuel Wilks or a grandson, Ellen's son, which would be Hat Sparks, instead of Wilks.

4-2 Jerry Wright, son of Richard and Elizabeth (Hughes) Wright, was born in 1810 or 1811, his grandson Melvin Hornbaker says. He remembers visiting his grandfather who lived just outside of Bedford, Indiana, to the northwest, on the road between Bedford and Oolitic. He did not say when Jerry died but that he was buried in Mount Olive Cemetery, three miles south of Williams in Lawrence Co., Indiana. Jerry married Polly Ann Melton (or Milton). She was called "Mollie". She was born about 1810 and was a sister to Jane Melton who married James Wright's son, George Johnson Wright, a first cousin of Jerry's.
Children of Jerry and Polly Ann (Melton), also written, Pollie, Wright, as copied from Bible of Mr. Hornbaker by Mrs. Lillie White:
5-1 Nathan Wright, born April 1, 1835, fell in Battle, April 9, 1863.
5-2 Richard Allen Wright, born June 6, 1836.
5-3 James Matteson Wright, born Jan. 11, 1839.
5-4 Elizabeth Jane Wright, born March 29, 1840.
5-5 William Henry Harrison Wright, born May 5, 1842.
5-6 Elias Wright, born Feb. 16, 1844.
5-7 Mary Ann Wright, born Dec. 29, 1846; died June 25,1849.
5-8 Angeline Wright, born Aug. 20, 1850.
5-9 Luzine Wright, born Feb. 16, 1852.
Child:
6-1 Melvin Hornbaker, son of Luzine Wright and ~~~-Hornbaker, was born March 16, 1872, married on Dec. 23,1900 to Blanch Goon, born 1880. Mr. Hornbaker has a shoe shop in Bloomington, Indiana, and owns a farm just west of town where he lives.

Children of Melvin and Blanch (Goen) Hornbaker:
7-1 Dorothy Hornbaker, born 1901, died 1915.
7-2 Ruth Hornbaker, born July 29, 1903, married _____ _____, on Aug. 2, 1942.

Luzine Wright was married again and had quite a family but do not have names.

4-3 Jane Wright

4-4 Elizabeth Wright

4-5 Hiram Wright
Do not have any information on these children of Richard Wright, other than the names. Likely there is someone at Jasonville or Midland, Indiana, who might know.

4-6 James Wright born in Monroe Co., Indiana, May 5, 1825, died April 1, 1906. He married Delia Jane Ellixson, on Oct. 29,1845. She was born July 21, 1829, and died April 22, 1873. They are buried just south of Jasonville, Indiana, I believe at Midland, or the Frey cemetery where Richard Wright is buried.
Children pf James and Delia Jane (Ellixson) Wright:
5-1 James William Wright, born 1851, died 1918. Wife was Mary A., born 1849, died 1934 or 35, had a son Omar,1877-1930, who was blind. Record from cemetery at Midland.
5-2 Zelpha E. Wright married _____ Saucerman. Children:
6-1 Henry Saucerman, Jasonville, Indiana.
6-2 Ethel Saucerman, Jasonville, Indiana.
6-3 Orvil Saucerman married and had daughters, Goldia Louise and Elizabeth. Orvil served in World War I.

5-3 Mary E. Wright

5-4 Nancy E. Wright A stone near James Wright's says Nancy E. born 1871, died Dec. 1899, aged 28 yrs. This has not been confirmed by her relatives.
5-5 Alice E. Wright married _____ McKee, lives at Midland, Indiana. Do not have names of children.

5-6 John Morton Wright served in the army a short time as a young man. He enlisted in the Spanish American War as John Morton and again in World War I. He married several times but had no children.

5- 7 to 11. James and Delia Wright had five children who died young.

3-6 Jesse Wright, son of Benjamin and Barbara (Morgan) Wright, was born between 1780-1790 in North Carolina. He moved to Indiana in early 1800 and lived in Washington Co. for awhile, then to Monroe Co., with his brother James, where he served as Sheriff. The 1830 census of Monroe County indicates that he had four daughters, then between 1 and 15 years. Later he moved to Illinois and was in Coles or Moultrie County in 1850. We have been unable to locate descendants.

Sarah Wright Hill Family.

3-7 Sarah Wright, daughter of Benjamin and Barbara (Morgan) Wright, was born in North Carolina about 1792, and married Thomas Hill about 1809 or 1810. They lived in Randolph Co., North Carolina for some years and Thomas was a plantation and slave owner. Jerry Wells, grandson of Thomas and Sarah, said that Thomas' mother was a Rush and that both the Rush and Hills were owners of much land and many slaves in North Carolina.

The Wrights early opposed slavery and it is said that Thomas Hill and family were persuaded by the Wrights to leave North Carolina and move to Indiana. Jerry Wells said that when they had their slave sale, Thomas sold Sally's old negro mammy and that she carried on so at having to leave the family, that Sarah (who was always called Sally) said she would do all in her power to free the slaves, and always did.

John Dukes, another grandson, said this family brought a slave woman or two with them to Indiana, but we cannot verify this elsewhere.

Mother says the wife and daughters of Thomas Hill were unable to withstand the hardships of pioneer life in Indiana and Iowa and none lived to be more than 55 years old.

Court records of Putnam Co., Indiana show that Sarah Hill sued Thomas Hill for divorce early in 1837, charging that he had deserted his family after she had been a good and faithful wife for twenty years, and that he had been gone for more than five years. The divorce was granted the same year. Their son's obituary says he was early left the support of his mother and six sisters but does not mention his father. I remember my grandmother silently shaking her head when talking of her grandparents but the divorce was never mentioned. It must have taken a great deal of courage for Sarah to get a divorce in those days.

In all fairness to Tommie Hill, it must have been a big jump from a North Carolina plantation with slaves to the wilderness that was then Putnam Co., Indiana. We believe that during this "deserting" time, he went back to North Carolina. Whether Sarah refused to accompany him, we will never know. However he returned to Indiana, and in 1839 or 1840, married Nancy Davis. I do not know if they had children. His grandson, Jerry Wells, said that Tommie Hill died at his brother's in Vincennes, Indiana.

I am not sure when Thomas and family came to Indiana. The Rev. Jesse Hill's obituary says they came when he was a babe and he was born in 1819. Jerry Wells said his mother was 18 when they came and that would be about 1829. They were in Putnam Co., Ind. in 1830 and listed in that census.

Sarah (Sally) Wright Hill was said to have been a pioneer doctor in Putnam Co., Indiana and rode horseback for many miles around to administer to the sick. My Mother has her old doctor book which was published in 1813. It contains many queer prescriptions.

Putnam Co., Indiana marriage records give a Sarah Hill who married John Sigler, Esq. on Nov. 25, 1838 with Ben Wright, officiating. In Putnam County history, John Sigler is listed as one of the earliest judges in that county. While this may have been our Sarah Wright Hill, Hill was a fairly common name there and we had never heard of this marriage from family sources.

Sarah Wright Hill died in 1846 and was buried in the family cemetery on her brother Benjamin Wright, Jr.'s farm, in Madison Twp., Putnam Co., Indiana, about five miles north of Reelsville, Indiana. Her stone says: My Mother, Sarah Hill. Deceased, 1846.

Children of Thomas and Sarah (Wright) Hill:

4-1 Elizabeth Hill born about 1811, died 1864 or 1865.

4-2 Rebecca Hill born 1813, died Oct. 4, 1854.

4-3 Martha Hill born May 23, 1817, died Oct. 26, 1869.

4-4 Rev. Jesse Hill born Sept. 29, 1819, died April 12, 1895.
(twins)
4-5 Gilleya Hill born Sept. 29, 1819, died Jan. 15, 1855.

4-6 Mary Hill born Nov. 9, 1823, died Oct. 5, 1871.

4-7 Celia Hill born August 26, 1825, died April 18, 1880.

Most of the above children were born in Randolph Co., North Carolina. It is possible that Mary and Celia were born in Indiana, especially if the family tarried in the southern part of the state before settling at or near Greencastle. They were in Randolph Co., N.C. in 1819, and in Putnam Co., Ind. in 1830 but we are not sure of the years in between.

All of the above died in Appanoose Co., Iowa except the Rev. Jesse Hill, died at Frankfort, Indiana.

4-1 Elizabeth (called Betsy) Hill, daughter of Thomas and Sarah Wright Hill, was born in North Carolina about 1811. She moved with her parents to Putnam Co., Indiana in the 1820's and was married there on Jan. 22, 1829 to James Wells, by her Uncle Ben Wright, Jr. Her son Jerry said she met Wells when coming from North Carolina and that the Wells family operated a transportation system through the mountains.
Children of James and Elizabeth (Hill) Wells:
5-1 Sophia Wells
5-2 Thomas Wells
5-3 Jerry Wells
5-4 Sela Wells (probably should be Celia)
5-5 Ellen Wells, twin of Sela's.

5-1 Sophia Wells born in Indiana moved to Appanoose Co. Iowa in the 1850's. She married Alf Copple (or Cobble) probably in Ind. They had one child, Samuel, who was taken to Uncle Henry Blackburn's near Numa, Iowa, when there was some contagious disease in the home, and lived there the rest of his life. Sam's son, Charles Blackburn, says Sophia went to Kansas to join her husband and didn't get back for seven years, then the Blackburn's refused to give him up.

5-2 Thomas Wells, born about 1831, in Indiana, enlisted in the Union Army and served in the Civil War from there. He later moved to Appanoose Co., Iowa, where his nephew said he was pensioned. (May have been wounded.) He had several children and relatives think he may have moved to Oskaloosa, Iowa.

5-3 Jerry Wells, born 1833 in Putnam Co., Indiana, died Aug.22, 1931, at Mountain Grove, Missouri. He went to Iowa in the fall of 1855. His first wife was Anna Adams who lived only a short time. He then married Sarah Eliza Davis, who was born in 1835. They were living near Ottumwa, Iowa in 1869.

Children:
6-1 Harry Wells, died at Kansas City, Missouri, in 1913.

6-2 W. E. Wells, born Dec. 20, 1869 near Ottumwa, Iowa, married, and lives at Wichita, Kansas, where he and sons have a landscaping business.

6-3 Celia Wells, died in 1915.

6-4, 6-5 Two other children died young.

5-3 Jerry Wells' wife Sarah died in Iowa and he went to Missouri about 1895. There he married Ida Mason, born in 1870, in 1896. They lived at Mountain Grove, Missouri, and were the parents of one child, Mary, who was kind enough to write me much of the Hill-Wells history. Jerry had a remarkable memory at 95, and from his description or places near Greencastle, Indiana, we were able to locate his grandmother, Sarah Wright Hill's grave.
Child:
6-1 Mary Wells married Lon Riley, on Oct. 26, 1915. They live at Mountain Grove, Missouri.
Children:
7-1 Thomas Elisworth Riley born 1915.
7-2 Charles William Riley born Jan. 14, 1917.
7-3 Clarence Riley born 1919.
7-4 Jessie Marie Riley born 1921.
7-5 Jerry Riley born May 1930.

5-4 Sela Wells (probably should be Celia) was born in Putnam Co., Indiana in the 1830's and is said to have died in Appanoose Co., Iowa three weeks after her marriage to Napoleon Poole, in 1856 or 1857. Older relatives say that Sela and Ellen were beautiful girls.
5-5 Ellen Wells, twin or Sela's, was born in Putnam Co., Indiana in the 1830's, and married at the same time her sister Sela did, in 1856 or 1857. She married Isaac M. Beamer, who later enlisted in the Union Army and served in the Civil War. She stayed with her mother near Numa, Iowa while he was away.

4-] Elizabeth Hill Wells and James Wells were divorced at Greencastle, Indiana, Oct. 29, 1840. James remarried immediately on Nov. 9, 1840 to Elizabeth Martin. We don't know what became of them.

Elizabeth Wells remarried on Oct. 13, 1842, at Greencastle, Indiana, to Lewis Copple, with Isaiah Wright, J. P. officiating. The Iowa census of 1860 gives Lewis' age as 56 and born in Indiana. (Born about 1804.) Putnam Co.,Indiana records show that Peter and Elizabeth Copple gave Lewis land there in 1830. We believe they were his parents. This Elizabeth Copple, Sr. is said by Ben Wright Jr.'s daughters to have been their Aunt and that she lived close to Ben Jr. in Putnam Co. Indiana. If so Elizabeth was a Wright before she married Peter Copple (some of the spelling is Cobble) and the above Elizabeth Hill Wells and her husband, Lewis Copple, would be cousins.

Lewis and Elizabeth Copple moved to Iowa where they bought a farm from Wm. Fox, on Nov. 5, 1856, 80 acres in Twp. 68, R.18, Appanoose Co., for $1800. This was later known as the Keller farm and is now owned by Mrs. H. L. Johnson, of Numa, Iowa.

Elizabeth was living, aged 50, in 1860, and was living during part, at least of the Civil War. Lewis sold the farm on May 31, 1865 and she did not sign deeds, so likely died just before that. She is said to have been buried in the Motto Cemetery, south east of Numa, Iowa, where four of her five sisters were, but we could find no stone. Lewis died sometime after 1870 at his son Levi's, who lived on what is now called the Veach farm (southeast of Numa, Iowa) and was buried in the Adamson Cemetery on that farm because of high water between there and Motto Cemetery.

Children of Elizabeth Hill Wells and Lewis Copple:
5-1 Levi Copple born about 1844 or 1845.
5-2 Charity Copple born and died in Putnam Co. Indiana.
5-3 Rebecca Copple born and died in Putnam Co. Indiana. Both were buried on Ben Wright's farm in Madison Twp. Died young.
5-4 Julia Copple born about 1853.

5-1 Levi Copple born in Indiana about 1844 or 1845, enlisted in the Union Army in the Civil War while living in Appanoose Co., Iowa. When he returned, he married Sarah ----- - --- and lived southeast of Numa, Iowa.
Children:
6-1 Albert Copple, born about 1867. Now deceased.
6-2 William Copple, born about 1868. Was living in South Dakota in 1950.
There may have been other children.

5-1 Levi Copple was married for the second time after Sarah's death to Parnecia Brown. They moved to Emporia, Kansas, and had two daughters. Levi passed away sometime ago and was buried there, but his widow and daughters were still there in 1950.

5-4 Julia Copple, born about 1855, married Rod Cole, in Appanoose Co. Iowa, and left three small girls when she died in childbirth. We don't know what became of this family.

4-2 Rebecca Hill, daughter of Thomas and Sarah (Wright) Hill, was born in Randolph Co., North Carolina in 1813. Her stone in Motto Cemetery, Appanoose Co., south east of Numa, Iowa, says: Rebecca, wife or Henry Wells, died Oct. 4, 1854, aged 41 years.

She probably married Henry Wells in Putnam Co., Indiana where she moved with her parents in the 1820's. Henry was a brother of James Wells who married Rebecca's sister Elizabeth Hill. Henry Wells was born in 1805 or 1806. His stone in Motto Cemetery says: Henry Wells, died Jan. 1876, aged 70 yrs. 6 mo. 14 da. (History of Appanoose Co. Iowa says he died Jan. 1, 1877.) This history also says the family moved to Ottumwa, Iowa in 1848 from Indiana, then to Appanoose Co. in 1851.

Marriage records in that county list a Henry Wells and Sireno Horland who married in 1855. This is likely Henry's second marriage.

Children of Henry and Rebecca (Hill) Wells:
5-1 Jesse Wells
5-2 Mary Wells
5-3 Benjamin Wells

4-3 Martha Hill, daughter of Thomas and Sarah (Wright) Hill, was born in Randolph Co., North Carolina on May 23, 1817, and moved with her parents to Putnam Co., Indiana in the 1820's. There she married Absalom Adams on May 1, 1834, her Uncle Ben Wright, J.P., performing the ceremony. They moved to Appanoose Co., Iowa in 1849 or 1850, as the Iowa census record of 1856 says they had been in the state six years. Martha died Oct. 26,1869 and was buried in Motto Cemetery southeast of Numa, Iowa. Her stone says: Aged 52 yrs. 5 mo. 3 da.

Absalom Adams was born in Kentucky on Nov. 11, 1813, the son of John (Jack) Adams, and died near Numa, Iowa on Sept. 20, 1869. He is also buried in Motto Cemetery. His stone says: Aged 55 yrs. 10 mo. 9 da.

Absalom Adams was a Justice of Peace for many years in Iowa. He, with his brother-in-law, William Fox, deeded one-half acre to the Public for a burying bround, on June 13, 1855. This was later called the Motto Cemetery. It is located in the northern and central part of Pleasant Twp., Appanoose Co., Iowa.

Martha Hill Adams was said to have been a talented singer and all of her children were musical.

From Mrs. Pearl Rudolph Hawkins of Ludlow, Missouri, a granddaughter of Martha Hill and Absalom Adams, I obtained the following Bible record of their children:

5-1 Cyntha Jane Adams born Sept. 7, 1836.

5-2 Sarah Ellen Adams born May 4, 1838.

5-3 Jesse Wright Adams born Dec. 14, 1839.

5-1 Cyntha Jane Adams first married a man named Motto. He was killed in the Civil War. They had one son:
6-1 Anthony Motto died in his Aunt Mary Elizabeth Adams Rudolph's home at Ludlow, Missouri.

5-1 Cyntha Jane Adams Motto then married a man named Davis and had two sons but both died young near Ludlow, Mo.

5-2 Sarah Ellen Adams married John Thornburg.

Sarah Ellen Adams, called Ellen, was born May 4, 1838 in Putnam Co., Indiana and probably died about five miles south of Unionville, Missouri where the family lived after they left Appanoose Co. Iowa. Ellen lived southeast of what is now Numa, Iowa as a girl or young woman, and married John Thornburgh of Numa, Iowa. He was the eldest of seven boys and two girls of the Thornbugbh family, and the father owned a farm on which Numa was laid out. He ran a small store in Numa. (John and Calvin Thornburgh were two of the brothers of John who also lived at or near Unionville, Missouri.) The Thornburghs came to Numa from Salem, Indiana. We believe the father was Asa Thornburgh, as the Appanoose Co. Iowa History, published in 1878, says Numa and Bellair (the first name was Bellair):
"The Methodist Episcopal society was founad at Bellair in 1857, the first class being: Asa Thornburg and wife, Wm. Fox and wife, Perry Steward and wife, Russell Watkins and wife. Early pastors were, Rev. Jesse Hill, Geo. Clark, Morey, Boyles, Chas. Clark, Miller, Thatcher, Thomas Stevenson, John Orr, James Hunter.
"A stone building was bought and made into a church in 1864. A new church was built in 1874, cost $650."

Ellen Adams Thornburgh seems to have died fairly young and left three children. His husband John married again to a widow with one daughter. John served in the Civil War.
Children of Ellen Adams and John Thornburgh:
6-1 Annie 6-2 Adda 6-3 William

6-1 Annie Thornburgh married ---------- Bradshaw.
Do not know whether or not she had children.

6-2 Adda Thornburgh married ------ Stanton. They had two sons.
7-1 John Stanton lives in Kansas City, Kansas and is a barber. He learned that trade in World War I.

7-2 Earl Stanton lives in Rockford, Illinois.

6-3 Will Thornburgh lives at Topeka, Kansas.
(The above information was sent by Mrs. J.C. Grimes of Kansas City, Mo., who is a daughter of Calvin Thornburgh and cousin of Ellen's children.)

6-3 Jesse Wright Adams born Dec. 14, 1839, probably in Putnam Co., Indiana. His parents moved to Appanoose Co., Iowa in 1849 or 1850. He enlisted in the Union Army and played fife in the Civil War. The Appanoose Co. war record of Co. D, 6th Iowa Inf., says: Fought at Shilah, Missionary Ridge and other famous engagements. Its roster gives: "Jesse W. Adams, 21, Pleasant Twp., Oct. 1861 to Jan. 1864."

Jesse W. Adams married Nancy Conger, probably in Appanoose Co., Iowa, as Congers were early settlers near his home. Soon after the Civil War, Jesse went to Missouri, then a few years later to Medford, Oregon, where his wife died at the age of thirty-three, leaving him with four small children: Pearl was six, Lettie was four, Edgar was two and Elsworth four weeks old. His daughter Lettie says he was both father and mother to his children, and beloved by all.

4-4 Rev. Jesse Hill (a twin of Gilleys), son of Thomas and Sarah (Wright) Hill, was born September 29,1819, in Randolph Co., North Carolina, and died at Frankfort, Indiana, April 12,1895. He prepared his own obituary for the local Frankfort paper, and it appeared in the issue of April 13,1895, and is still on file there. It says in part, that he came with parents to Indiana as a babe, and that he was early left with the main support of his Mother and six sisters. He was converted in a Methodist Camp Meeting in 1842 and licensed to preach in 1843. He soon engaged in active work in the North Western Indiana Conference. He went to Iowa in 1845 where he joined the Iowa Conference but returned to Indiana in 1846 and joined the Northern Indiana Conference in 1848, where he spent the remainder of his life in active work. His first circuit was the old North Salem circuit. He served in the Methodist ministry over fifty years and was stationed at thirty-five different towns and cities in Indiana.

He was an excellent singer and attributed part of his success as a minister to that fact. He was married on August 31,1852, at Frankfort, Indiana, to Mary E. Barner, daughter of John H. Barner, she was born in Clinton Co., Indiana in 1835 and died May 30, 1914.

Rev. Jesse Hill organized a company of Union Soldiers and was elected Captain of Co. I, 72nd Ind. Inf. Mustered into service August 16,1862. (One date says Aug. 11,1861, may have been date of organizing.) He was appointed Chaplain of this Company September 30,1862, and honorably discharged because of disability in 1863.

I have a small clipping from the Chicago Record under date of April 12,1895, which had been saved by my grandmother, telling of Rev. Hill's death. He was at first buried in the Odd Fellows Cemetery in Frankfort, Indiana but later moved to the new cemetery just west of the edge of Frankfort, where a lovely stone marks his and his wife's graves. The clipping says in part, "Rev. Hill will be buried by the Grand Army of the Republic, Sunday morning."

His father-in-law was quite a prominent merchant in Frankfort, Indiana.

His granddaughter, Mrs. Bertha Whitcomb Bindley, says she remembers hearing him tell of trading the site of what is now Des Moines, Iowa for $20 and a pony. We know that he spent some time in Iowa before it was a state.

Shortly before her death, she and her daughter spent a winter in North Carolina, near High Point. She, at that time, tried to learn something of her Hill ancestry. She was told that the Hills were Irish with a Spanish strain, having decended from Spaniards who fled from Spain during the Inquisition (probably in the 1400's) and had settled in Ireland and intermarried. She was unable to find anything definite on the North Carolina line, however. Her daughter says she found nothing definite ce Thomas Hill's ancestry.

Moved to Putnam Co., Indiana with her parents between 1825 and 1830, and lived there until 1852. She was married on Nov. 7,1843, our Bible record says, at Greencastle, Indiana to William Fox. (The Putnam Co. record says Nov. 5, 1843, by Isaiah Wright, J.P. This was probably when the License was secured).

William Fox was born Oct. 26,1823 in Indiana, and died Jan. 31,1902, near Numa, Iowa. Since he was a second cousin of his wife, Celia, who was also a Wright descendant, part of his history will be found under Martha Wright Moss descendants.

William and Celia Fox lived in Indiana for a few years then moved to Iowa in 1852, living for a few years on what is now called the Hoover farm, two or three miles south east of Numa, Iowa. Shortly after 1855, they bought the homestead in Bellair Twp., Appanoose Co., Iowa, just east of Bellair, which is now called Numa, and spent the remaining years of their lives. They accumlated considerable land in Bellair and Pleasant Townships. The Rock Island Railroad bought a right of way through their land in about 1865. This wasthe first railroad in this section of Iowa. Grandmother says they had many tramps stop at their door after the railroad was built, and that none went away hungry. In fact, Celia, being southern, had hot breads almost every meal and used to always make a few extra in case someone came hungry after the meal was over.

Celia Hill Fox died April 18,1880, of what was then called bowel consumption. William's death was attributed to Bright's disease. They are both buried in Motto Cemetery, south east of Numa, Iowa and about a mile and a half south east of their homestead. (Stones). They, with Absolam Adams and wife, deeded this land to the Public for a Burying Ground in 1855.

Bellair and Numa history says William Fox and wife helped found the Methodist Church at Bellair, in 1857.

5-3 Martha Sarona Fox born March 1, 1852 in Indiana, died near Numa, Iowa July 10, 1863. My grandmother used to tell of this sister and what a serious, studious child she was. It seems her illness began shortly after she was punished, by whipping, at school for something she did not do, and she just slipped away without the doctor ever finding a cause or name for her malady.

5-4 Nancy Elizabeth Fox was born April 20, 1855, on what is now called the Hoover farm, about three miles east of Numa, Iowa. She was the first child of this family born in Iowa. She died Nov. 6, 1926, at the home of her daughter, Celia (Russell) Johnson, near Numa, Iowa. Her death was attributed to heart disease and bronchial trouble.

5-4 Nancy Elizabeth Fox (cont'd):

She was married on March 2, 1873 at the family homestead, to Oliver Perry Russell, by Uncle Henry Blackburn, an early Baptist preacher from Lincolnshire, England, who was also Justice of the Peace then. Oliver P. Russell was born Jan. 7, 1852 in Ray Co., Missouri, where his parents lived for a short time. Oliver was the son of William and Emily (Sagesar)*Russell. William was born in Adams Co., Ohio, and grew up in eastern Indiana. Emily*was born in Bourbon Co., Kentucky. They were married at Rushville, Indiana in 1845. They moved to Wayne Co., Iowa in the 1850's. Oliver was the grandson of Alexander Russell, born in 1794 and died 1863, and Jane (Jack) Russell. They were married in in Adams Co., Ohio, and died near Oskaloosa, Clay Co., Illinois. Alexander's father was John Russell who lived for many years in Adams Co., Ohio, then Fayette Co., Indiana, and was said to have been a descendant of Lord Russell, Duke of Bedford. (If so, probably one of the early Dukes).

Nancy E. and Oliver Russell lived on a farm east of Numa, Iowa for a few years, then on the homestead just at the northern edge of Numa, until about 1906. They then bought a farm just southeast of Numa, which j oined the homes of their two daughters, and lived there until Oliver's death July 11, 1924, from septic poisoning on his arm. Oliver was a skilled veterinary doctor but did not take out papers for a liconse when young and state laws made it impossible in later years. He was an excellent nurse and the whole neighborhood looked to him in time of illness. He had a fine tenor voice and had attended the old-time singing schools. He had been raised a Presbyterian but joined the Methodist Church at Numa when a young man and was one of the pillars of that church. He seldom missed a service, and attended on Sunday evening before his passing on Friday, at which time he gave a testimonial saying he was ready to go. He was beloved by all his grandchildren and I still believe him to have been the best man I ever know.

Nancy Elizabeth Fox Russell also had an excellent voice, so there was much singing in their home. Nancy's father was able to give her somethings not always found in pioneer homes .. one was an accordian on which she became quite proficient. Elderly friends also tell me that her clothes were the envy of the neighbor girls. I early learned of her love of jewelry and was always pleased with her gifts.

Nancy Russell was also a devout Methodist but being of Wright ancestry, she believed in baptism by immersion and was always concerned that "her Oliver" had only been "sprinkled".

Both Oliver and Nancy Russell are buried in Numa cemetery, a few blocks from where they lived for many years.

* (See Gen.Mag.Vol.4,page 286, for Segesser Pedigree,beginning at Mellingen, Switzerland where the family lived for years before 1250. Walter de Segesser married Miss Von Schames.) Our Segesers lived in Maryland or Pennsylvania before moving to Kentucky.

6-2 Celia Russell born Nov. 28, 1877 just east of Numa, Iowa. She attended Numa schools, also Centerville Normal. She was a musician, both vocal and pianist, and still plays for many funerals at Numa, Iowa. She was an excellent nurse, like her father, and would have made a good doctor.

She was married on Sept. 22, 1895 to Harris Longthorn Johnson, who was born Feb. 27, 1867 in Racine Co., Wisconsin, the son of English parents, George and Harriett (Dyball) Johnson. He moved with his parents to Numa, Iowa in 1868. He was a coal mine owner and operator at the time of their marriage but soon sold his interests and bought what was then called the Keller farm, about a mile and a half south east of Numa. Here they moved in January 1901 and have lived since, buying additional land from time to time.

Harris L. Johnson passed away at his home on March 2, 1940, after having suffered from hearts attacks since 1932. He was buried in the family lot at Numa, Iowa. Rev. Mott Sawyers giving the funeral service at the Methodist church.

Celia taught all her children to read music at an early age, and all played piano.

He was married on Oct. 26,1816 in Randolph Co. North Carolina to Mary (called Polly) Hill. She was a sister of Thomas Hill, who married Sarah Wright, Benjamin's sister.

Mary was born April 4, 1800 and died Sept. 30, 1847 in Putnam Co., Indiana. She was buried on the home farm,in cemetery created in 1838 when her eldest son died. I understand her stone is now broken and it is possible the date of death should be 1846 instead of 1847.

Benjamin Wright served in the War of 1812. His record says: "Ben Wright enlisted from Randolph Co., N.C. on Nov. 28, 1814 and served as a private in Capt. John Ramsour's co. of N.C. Militia until Feb. 22, 1815. He was living in Putnam Co. Indiana in 1850 and in 1855 was residing in Cumberland Co., Illinois aged 61. He was allowed bounty land in full satisfaction for his services."

Benjamin and Mary (Hill) Wright moved with other relatives from North Carolina to Putnam Co., Indiana in 1822. Here they settled on a farm on Little Walnut Creek in Madison Twp., west of Greencastle and about five miles north of Reelsville, Indiana. This was their home until a few years after Mary's death, when he sold to his son William Wright and moved to Illinois. I understand this is still in the possession of William Wright's grandson, Raymond T. Wright.

Benjamin Wright Jr. was a Justice of Peacefor many years in Putnam Co., Indiana. His grandson says he married many a couple in his cornfield, if they came while he was working.

(The marriage record of Benjamin Wright Jr. and Mary (Polly) Hill was obtained from North Carolina Historical Commission, Raleigh, N.C. from the Randolph County Marriage Bonds, Box W, No. 1.)

Zebidee and Eliza Ann Wright were living in Miami Co, Ind, in 1848 but went back to Putnam Co. in 1854 then to Appanoose Co. Iowa in 1856, settling in the western part of Bellair Twp. not far from Seymour, Iowa.

SWINFORD

In searching of the records for information of the Wright family by Ulysses Simeon Wright, Albuquerque, New Mexico and Dorothy (terhune) Bortner(deceased), formerly of Redkey, Indiana, there has been brought to light the fact that three sons of Benjamin Wright, Jr. married Swinford girls---an aunt and two nieces. Hence, some of those findings are being recorded here for the benefit of Wright descendants.

ELISHA SWINFORD (had brothers Joshua and John) came from England to Newberry Co., South Carolina where he married Thankful Done (Doan, Doane). They moved to Harrison County, Kentucky before 1794 as evidenced by a deed for a farm which was still in possession of the family in 1905. This farm is located on the east side of Licking River---river bottom land of 150 acres, on which Elisha erected a log house, lived and died there. The children of Elisha and Thankful (Done) Swinford were: Polly, James, Sally, John, William, Betsey, Samuel and Nancy.

John Swinford, b. 1795 (son of Elisha) grew to manhood in Kentucky. He later moved to Putnam Co., Indiana. In 1826 he married Polly Adams, daughter of Absolom and Sally (Compton) Adams.

(Will of Absolom Adams, written 3-20-1843 and probated 9-4-1843, Putnam Co., Ind, names "wife Sally"and among his seven children is "Mary, wife of John Swinford.")

John and Polly (Adams) Swinford had children: William, Wilson Frazier, Sarah Jane, George, Salone, Thankful, Euscba, Polly and Nancy S. Thankful Swinford married William Wright, son of Benjamin Wright, Jr. and had children; John Wesley, Jesse Monroe, George Washington, Sarah, Perry Wilson and Willis E.

John Swinford (son of Elisha) died and is buried in Putnam Co., Ind. but his wife, Polly (Adams) Swinford, moved to Nodaway Co., Missouri with their son William where she died 7-23-1876 at the age of 81y.,3m.,10d.(monument record) and is buried beside son William in Swinford Cemetery, 11 mi. S.E. of Maryville, Mo.

William Swinford (son of John), b. 11-20-1815,d.1905, married Rebecca Thompson (1815-1879), daughter of William and Elizabeth (Cummins) Thompson. Their children were: Sarilda Jane, Sarah Ellen, Elizabeth, George, Martha, Miriam, Fannie, William and Emma.

Sarilda Jane Swinford (b.12-13-1838,d.8-12-1880) was married 10-12-1853 to Simeon Wright (b.2-14-1832,d.6-21-1880) son of Benjamin Wright, Jr.

Sarah Ellen Swinford(b.9-24-1838, d.1929) was married 7-20-1852 to Perry A. Wright (b.11-16-1833, d.5-24-1875) son of Benjamin Wright, Jr.

3-9 Jordon (sometimes spelled Jordon) Wright, son of Benjamin Wright, Sr. and his second wife, Patsey, was born in N.C., January 12,1796 and died in Andrew Co., Mo., April 4, 1865, according to his stone in Long Branch Cemetery in that county. Andrew Co., Mo., history says, "He was married in N.C. in 1818 to Barbara Fox, who was born in Vermont in 1790. Soon after their marriage they moved to Indiana, then to Andrew Co., Mo. in 1845. He was a farmer by occupation but a wagon maker by trade. He was a preacher in the Christian Church for twenty years. He had three sons and two daughters?

His great granddaughter says he built a church in 1848, on Long Branch creek, in Andrew Co., Missouri. He was Elder of this church until it was burned in the Civil War. Later a log church was erected on the present site of the frame church.

Marion Co., Indiana history says Jordan and Barbara Wright Helped found the first Christian Church in Wayne Twp. He owned considerable land in Sec. 22 and Sec. 27, Twp. 16, Range 2, in Wayne Twp. Marion Co., Ind. He sold this in 1845. He and family are listed in the Marion Co. Ind. census for 1830 and for 1840. In 1840 an aged female was living with them, whom I believe was Jordon's mother.

Barbara Fox Wright's stone in Long Branch Cemetery says: Died Feb. 6,1878, age 87 yrs 13 da. This would make birthdate January 23,1791 and agrees with census instead of the above history.

Children:
4-1 Thomas Wright, born Dec. 4,1818
4-2 Samuel Wright
4-3 Catherine Wright, born Apr. 15,1824
4-4 Celia Wright, born Feb. 18,1826
4-5 Jesse F. Wright, born Aug. 25,1834

Ella Colburn Thompson thinks there was another girl in this family who died soon after 1850. We cannot verify elsewhere.

4-1 Thomas Wright, born Dec. 4,1818, probably in N.C., died April 6,1898, in Andrew Co., Mo. Buried in Long Branch cemetery. Stone. Lived at Savannah, Mo. First wife was Sarah, who died young.

Children:
5-1 Cyrus Wright, went to Kansas.
5-2 Allen Wright, died aged 11 years.
5-3 Celia Wright married Donny Parker, went west during gold rush - never heard from again.

4-1 Thomas Wright, married second time to Anne Ruby McClothen, born 1838, died 1921.

Child:
5-4 Martha Wright Kinneman, had several children. Buried in Long Branch Cemetery, Andrew Co., Missouri.

4-2 Samuel Wright born probably around 1820. Bells say his wife was Mollie. If he was a son of Jordan and Barbara (Fox) Wright, as we believe, he probably married in Marion Co. Indiana, or near there and remained in that state when his father moved to Missouri in 1845. Several relatives remember this Sam and family stopping at Maryville and at Savannah, Missouri about 1875, on his way to Colorado for his health. U.S. Wright says he thinks Sam was a doctor but that he became a successful rancher just south of Colorado Springs, and never practiced in Colorado. U.S. Wright and his sister, Mrs. Tignor remember visiting this cousin Sam in about 1877. Mrs Tignor says Sam was most kind, and U.S. says he remembers playing with the sons, Charles and Willis. May have been other children.

Ella Colburn Thompson, a great granddaughter of Jordan Wright, is the only one of Jordan's family who remembers and Uncle Sam. She says her mother used to often speak of him and that he was Catherine Wright Smith's brother.

Children:

5-1 Charles Wright, married and the Bell cousins say he had two sons, but that both died the same week from some contagious disease. They do not know of any other children. Charles Wright lived in the Los Angeles, California area for many years. Mrs Tignor says his business was blue prints for building construction. U.S. Wright says he was still there in 1926. The Bells thought Charles had also been educated as a doctor, but it may have been his father as indicated above.

5-2 Dr. Willis M. Wright is listed in the Denver, Colo. directory for 1890. With him was a Mary Wright, who must have been his wife or daughter. His second cousin, Dr. Ellen Bell, also practiced with him at that time. We believe that Dr. Willis M. Wright died in the 1890's or soon after. Mr. U.S. Wright says Dr. Willis was deeply religious and that he died soon after a visit to Missouri. The Bell cousin say they believe he had only one child and that it did not live to maturity. Adam Wright's granddaughter says that Dr. Willis' wife had some Indian blood.

4-3 Catherine Wright, born April 15,1824, died September 28, 1850, married John Lambert Smith, born near Indianapolis, Indiana October 19,1818, died Hamlin Kan. Dec. 9,1894. Both buried at Long Branch Cemetery, Andrew Co., Missouri. Catherine married John L. Smith in Marion Co. Ind. 12-19-1839. ****

Children:

5-1 John T. Smith, married Martha Snowden,

* After Catherine (Wright) Smith's early death, John L. Smith married again to Mary Ann Garner, and their granddaughter, Lela Blanche (Goff) Smith (Mrs. Russell Holt), 1411 S. 11th St.,Chickasha, Oklahoma, sent me the names of many of Catherine's descendants.

3-10 Adam Wright, son of Benjamin Wright Sr. and his second wife, was born in North Carolina January 13,1799 and died in Pike Twp., Marion Co., Indiana, October 13,1851. He married Judith Bollibaugh, born February 17,1802, died November 25,1850. They are listed in Pike Twp. Marion Co., Indiana in census of 1830, at which time Adam was more than 30, and his wife more than 20, two daughters under 5, and one between 5 and 10.

The Marion Co. records show that Adam owned much land, especially in Sections 14,2,11, of Twp. 16, Range 2 and in Section 34, Twp. 17, R3 northwest of Indianapolis, now highway U.S. 52. (on the old Lafayette Road, about 7 or 8 miles).

Several histories of Marion Co. Indiana mention Adam Wright, In Sulgrove's History of Indianapolis and Marion Co., page 508, Decatur Twp. Adam Wright was assessor Jan. 7,1833, Jan. 6,1834. Page 597, Adam Wright, Justice of Peace, July 4,1831 to July 4,1834 (resigned.) Pike Twp.

Page 605 The first post office, called Piketon, in Pike Twp. was located at Adam Wright's house, on the farm now owned and occupied by Zecharish Bush, (1884), on the Lafayette Road. The mail was carried on horseback from Indianapolis to Lafayette. This post office was later discontinued. The oldest village in Pike Twp. is old Augusta.

Page 499. Adam Wright was one of the associate Judges of the circuit court to which Marion Co. was attached, and held office from April 8,1836 to April 8,1850.

Page 498. Adam Wright served as Judge of the Probate Court Sept. 23,1850 to Oct. 13,1851. (Died)

Adam Wright's will is on file at Marion Co. Court House, Indianapolis, Indiana, in Will Record B, page 329.

From Adam's grandchildren, I learned that he had a large home and it was a tavern or half way stop, especially for farmers driving cattle to Indianapolis. I located the farm from deed records and found a large brick house of ten rooms still there. (1938). It is owned by a Doctor in Indianapolis and occupied by Fred Foner. The older residents in that section were unable to say whether it was Adam's original house or whether it was built by Zacharian Bush, some thought about Civil War time. Bush bought from Adam Wright heirs and it was owned by Bush's heirs until recently.

I have searched several cemeteries near Adam's old farm but have been unable to find where he or his father were buried. (1938). Since then found it was the Old Union Cemetery.

Minta Stoops Haddock says she was told that Adam Wright was buried in cemetery near the railroad tracks north or northwest of Indianapolis. Melissa Stoops Hoffman said that her Uncle Martin Wright told her Adam was buried in a small cemetery but the people had wanted him buried in Indianapolis because he had served the County so long. She also said the only name she ever heard of Adam's mother was, Nasty, but that Martha, Celia and Jane were family names.

(3-10 Adam Wright - cont'd:)

The postmistress of Clermont, Indiana, sent the following records from "Old Union Cemetery", just east of Clermont, close to a railroad and a mile east of the country club road:

Adam Wright, died Oct. 13,1851 age 52 yrs. & 9 mo.

Judith Wright, died Nov. 26,1850, age 48 yrs. 9 mo. and 8 days

Graves side by side.

(I visited this cemetery in 1950 and the old stone of A.B.Wright's was in bad shape, so could not read much of it.O.J.K.)

Next to Adam Wright, there is an old stone which says:

"A.B. Wright son of J.S. & B. Wright, died Oct. 4, 1837, aged 56 (or 86) Yrs. 5 mo. 14 days".
The initials looked like J.S. (or R.S.) to Mrs. Swinford, but so worn, could not be sure. Is he Adam's father, brother or nephew? (If age was 16, could have been a son of Jordan and Barbara Wright).

Adam Wright's will, from Will Record B, page 329, Marion Co. Court House, Indianapolis, Indiana.

I, Adam Wright, of Marion Co., in the state of Indiana, do make and publish this, my last will and testament hereby revoking all former wills and codisils by me heretofore made.

Fourth, I will and bequeath to my daughter, Martha Revel, one dollar ($1), to my daughter Nicy Jane Burns, one dollar ($1), and to my daughter, Mary Eliza Griffin, one dollar ($1), they having heretofore received their full share.

Signed, Adam Wright. Oct. 4, 1851

* according to census record. Caldwell cemetery, Urbana Twp.,Monroe Co., Iowa record says: William R. Stoops died 4-13-1913; wife Judieth H., born 1843, died 9-30-1904.

3-11 John Wright, son of Benjamin and "Patsey" Wright, died young.

3-12 Thomas Wright, son of Benjamin and "Patsey" Wright, burned to death as a child.

3-13 Celia Wright, daughter of Benjamin Wright and his second wife, Patsey was born June 17,1805 in Randolph Co., North Carolina, and died January 10,1876 in Wapello Co., Iowa. She was married on March 17,1825, to Nathaniel Bell, in Monroe Co., Indiana, her half brother Richard Wright, who was a minister and J.P., performing the ceremony.

Nathaniel Bell, son of Benjamin and Elizabeth (Enoch) Bell, was born January 15,1807 in Butler Co., Ohio and died Feb. 7,1881 in Wapello, Iowa. (Old Benjamin Bell and his father, Nathaniel, were Rev. soldiers from Western Pennsylvania). Benjamin and family moved to Putnam Co., Indiana in1821. We do not know where Nathaniel Bell and Celia Wright met, but we do know her brother Ben Wright settled in Putnam Co., Indiana close to Benjamin Bell family in 1822.

We do not know where Nathaniel and Celia (Wright) Bell first lived after marriage, but find them in the census of 1830 in Wayne Twp., Marion Co., Indiana. At that time they were between 20-30, and had two daughters under 5. Next to them in the census, was Benjamin Wright, 80-90, and wife, 60-70, which must have been her father and mother. Her(Celia's) brother Jordan, was in the same Twp. and her brother Adam, close by in Pike Twp.

Nathaniel Bell owned considerable land in Marion Co., Indiana. Some of it was in Sec. 13, Twp. 16, R. 2, and in Sections 19 and 21 of Twp. 16, R. 3. Part of this he sold in 1845, shortly before leaving Indiana for Iowa.

Nathaniel and Celia Bell moved to Wapello Co., Iowa in 1845 and settled on a farm on the Eddyville Road about two miles west of Ottumwa, Iowa. They lived here the rest of their lives with the exception of a few years in Oskaloosa, Iowa, when Nathaniel was quite old. Both died on the old farm, then occupied by their son, Benjamin Franklin Bell. Buried in Burns cemetery, five miles west of Ottumwa, Iowa.

Nathaniel Bell was a County Commissioner of Wapello Co., Iowa in 1849. At the same time, it gives James E. Wright. We don't know what, if any, relation he was to our Wrights.

(The above marriage record was a family one or used for DAR record. Mrs. Lillie White found the record in the Monroe Co. Ind. Court House and it said: Nathaniel Bell and Celia Wright, married April 26, 1825, by Richard Wright, J.P.)

Children of Nathaniel and Celia (Wright) Bell:

Her niece says she had a notable career as a doctor for some twenty years or more, in the days when women's place "was in the home."

PETER WRIGHT

2-2 Peter Wright, son of Richard Wright, Sr. and his wife, Ann, was born in 1754 and served in the Revolption, according to Grant Wright, and older members of the family in Putnam County, Indiana.

Peter was given "twenty shillings" in his father's will dated 1784. Perhaps he had already left the family home and state at that time, as we find no Peter Wright in the census of North Carolina for 1790.

A Peter Wright, farmer, over 45, female over 45, with two other females, listed in the Harrison County, Indiana census for 1820, leads us to believe this Peter may have come to Indiana.

A nephew of this man, West Lee Wright of Johnson County, Indiana, had the following entered in his Bible: Peter Wright, son of Richard and Nancy Wright, died Oct. 1821.
